PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE May 23, 2020

THE NATIONAL FIRE HERITAGE CENTER RECRUITING VOLUNTEERS

The National Fire Heritage Center is currently recruiting volunteers for various historical preservation projects.

- Are you a High school or College student seeking an internship or externship opportunity?
- Are you a college student in a library science program?
- Are you a graduate student working on a thesis paper or project?
- Are you a doctoral student working on a dissertation assignment?
- Are you a photography or film student seeking a project?
- Are you interested in volunteering for an awesome non-profit organization?

If you answered yes to any of the above, we have a volunteer assignment for you at the National Fire Heritage Center.

Step 1: Sign up for an individual membership: https://fireheritageusa.org/membership

Step 2: Contact our Public Information Officer (PIO) with your area of expertise and or interest:

PIO Christopher Baker
National Fire Heritage Center
Cbaker@fireheritageusa.org

“PRESERVING THE PERISHABLE”

As an IRS 501c3 non-profit organization, the National Fire Heritage Center exists to preserve, protect and increase the utilization of contributors to the body of knowledge of the American Fire Protection Services and allied disciplines through identification, acquisition, preservation, conservation and restoration.